

Terms and Conditions

The Inclusive Education Action Group is committed to safeguarding your safety online.

Please read the following policy to understand how your personal information will be treated. This policy may change from time to time so please check back periodically. This policy will let you know:

Privacy Policy

What personally identifiable information is collected from you?

The Inclusive Education Action Group collects the following information regarding visitors to our website: IP address, information regarding what pages are accessed and when, information volunteered by you, such as survey information, email address and your preferred means of communication.

How is your information used?

The Inclusive Education Action Group uses the information collected about you to help us understand more about how our site is used. By signing up to the 'Inclusive Education Action Group' you are agreeing to your information being used to support the campaign for inclusive education.

Who is collecting your information?

The Inclusive Education Action Group owns the information collected on this site. We will not sell or rent this information to third parties. We collect information at several different points on our website.

With whom does The Inclusive Education Action Group share your information?

The Inclusive Education Action Group is committed to protecting the personal data of its supporters and members. Any details you give us will be held in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993.

What are my choices regarding collection, use and distribution of my information?

The Inclusive Education Action Group will not disclose any of your personally identifiable information, except where you have given your explicit permission. From time to time we may want to contact you with campaign updates. If you are emailed with information and you do not want to continue receiving it, please follow the instructions at the bottom of the email, which will tell you how to unsubscribe from receiving further updates.

What is the Inclusive Education Action Group's policy on allowing me to update, correct or delete my personally identifiable information?

The accuracy of your individual identifying information is important to the Inclusive Education Action Group. If you change postal or email address, or any of the other information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please contact us at sarah@ieag.org.nz, or write to us at: IEAG, PO Box 172, Kaukapakapa 0843, Auckland.

What security precautions are in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of my information?

When you give The Inclusive Education Action Group personal information we take steps to ensure that your information is treated securely. Non-sensitive details (your email address etc.) may be transmitted normally over the Internet, and this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, the Inclusive Education Action Group cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, the Inclusive Education Action Group is committed to taking reasonable steps to ensure its security on our systems.

Please email sarah@ieag.org.nz with any questions regarding our privacy policy.
