

invite disabled people, advocates and whanau-families to a meeting with

Professor Susan Gabel

Susan is a mother, researcher, teacher and lifelong advocate for disabled people and inclusive education internationally.

Susan is a founder of the field of Disability Studies in Education (DSE). DSE scholars work to understand, challenge and dismantle deficit responses to diversity and difference in education.

Date: Tuesday 4th June 2013

Time: 7pm - 9pm

Venue: Committee Room 2
Wellington City Council
101 Wakefield St
Wellington

Professor Susan Gabel is a visiting Fulbright Specialist Scholar from the College of Educational Studies, Chapman University, California. She is in New Zealand to speak at the Disability Studies in Education (DSE) 13th Annual Conference at the University of Canterbury, 7th to 9th June 2013.

Susan will speak about her life as a mother, researcher and disability advocate in inclusive education, disability rights and education policy in the USA and other countries. There will be time for discussion.

Supper and refreshments provided.

RSVP to: ihc.events@ihc.org.nz or 021 244 2697